

ALGORITHM FOR NC INTERPRETATION

1. Torah is the strict basis for all understanding of G-d (Research)
2. The Torah is the strict basis for all understanding of G-d's will for the Jewish people
3. The Torah is the strict basis for all understanding of G-d's will for all humanity
4. The term "Torah" refers to writings of the Torah itself and the interpretation of the Sages and Torah Scholars (legitimate)
5. No statement from the NC can invalidate any principle, saying or interpretation of the Jewish Sages and Torah Scholars concerning the Torah.
6. The veracity of any phrase, pericope chapter, book, or verse in the NC can only be valid and validated if it agrees with or by the Torah
7. The Hermeneutic Rules, 7—Hillel, 13— Yishmael, 32—Agadah and 42—So'od are the basis for exegesis of all outside literature.
8. All rules of language and grammar apply to the Hermeneutic Genre of interpretation and exegesis.
9. The meaning of any given text should be read and interpreted from Hebrew. (Biblical)
10. All translations, commentaries and exegesis concerning the NC must agree with the principle that Yeshua is Messiah and we are therefore committed to his place as a son of G-d.
11. These translations, commentaries and exegesis must not deify Yeshua in any way. Thus, we deny the teachings that Yeshua is a part of the "Trinity."

Any note, translation or comment must not have any anti-Semitic tone or insinuation.